

Course Of Study Sciences And Management Of Maritime Activities

Academic Year 2023-2024

Private Law

General information
Year of the course	1st year
Academic calendar (starting and ending date)	1st semester (from 7 October 2024 until 19 Genuary 2025)
Credits (CFU/ETCS):	Logistic curriculum: 6CFU Environmental curriculum: 8CFU
SSD	IUS/01
Language	Italian language
Mode of attendance	Recommended attendance

Professor/ Lecturer
Name and Surname	Barbara Borrillo
E-mail	barbara.borrillo@uniba.it
Telephone
Department and address	Didactic venue (Scuola Sottufficiali Marina Militare, largo L. Bezzi, 1 San Vito- Taranto)
Virtual room	Microsoft Teams code: 7xorljk
Office Hours (and modalities: e.g., by appointment, on line, etc.)	Reception by appointment in presence and online (Microsoft Teams code: 7xorljk)

Work schedule
Hours
Total	Lectures	Hands-on (laboratory, workshops, working groups, seminars, field trips)	Out-of-class study hours/ Self-study hours
Logistic curriculum 150	48		102
Environment al curriculum 200	64		136
CFU/ETCS
Logistic curriculum 6
Environment al curriculum 8

Learning Objectives	Acquisition of knowledge, skills and competences inherent of the most relevant private law issues – current and future – in the context of legal and global globalization, as an indispensable basis for legal teachings included in the study plan.
Course prerequisites	No prior knowledge is required.
Teaching strategie	The course is developed primarily through theoretical lessons, essential for the acquisition of knowledge (on the fundamental legal notions) that constitute the specific training objectives of the course. These theoretical lectures are supported by seminars and a practical part (case law exercises , individual and group research, discussion groups in the classroom or on an e-learning platform). Various tools are used for improving teaching effectiveness such as, e.g., powerpoint presentations, diagrams, bibliographic directions.
Expected learning outcomes in terms of
Knowledge and understanding on:	Acquisition of the methodology necessary for the knowledge and understanding of the private law institutes indicated in the program.
Applying knowledge and understanding on:	Acquisition of the methodology necessary for the application of knowledge and understanding of private law institutes through analysis of the most significant literature on the individual topics and study of the most innovative case law.
Soft skills	Making judgments At the end of the course the student must have acquired and developed the ability to critically study the private law institutes through the examination of the main doctrinal opinions and jurisprudential orientations on the individual topics under study. Communication skills At the end of the course, the student should be able to argue doctrinal and jurisprudential theses to be able to communicate them well in moments of sharing, comparison and discussion - in the classroom or on an e-learning platform - both individually and in groups. Ability to learn autonomously At the end of the course, the student should have acquired the methodology necessary for independent learning and critical study of private law institutes through the examination of the most significant literature and the most innovative case law on the individual topics under study.

Syllabus
Content knowledge	Logistic curriculum: Institutional part Environmental curriculum: Institutional and special parts INSTITUTIONAL PART Legal norms and legal system. Plurality of sources of Law and unity of the legal system. The interpretation of the Law. The legal relationship. Subjective legal status. Facts and legal effects. Acts and legal activity. Natural and legal persons. The rights of the personality. Real property and rights. Right of possession. Legal obligations: characteristics, structure, sources. The kinds of obligations. The amendment and the extinguishment of the previous obligations. Responsibilities and guarantees. Freedom of contract. Elements, parts, formation, effectiveness, interpretation, integration, invalidity and termination of the contract. Prescription and forfeiture. Transcription. Family Law. Succession mortis causa. SPECIAL PART The right of publicity and personality rights.
Texts and readings	INSTITUTIONAL PART 1. updated Civil code; 2. updated manual: P. PERLINGIERI, Istituzioni di diritto civile, Esi, Napoli or A. TORRENTE, P. SCHLESINGER, Manuale di diritto privato, Giuffrè, Milano; SPECIAL PART 3. L. TAFARO, Dagli eroi alle celebrità. Icone e diritto civile, Cacucci, Bari, 2018.
Notes, additional materials	Regulatory sources, Jurisprudence, as well as further teaching material useful for the study of the discipline.
Repository	The teaching material useful for the study of the discipline will be made available to students in electronic format on the e-learning platform of the University of Bari.

Assessment
Assessment methods	The examinations will focus on the individual learning outcomes for the teaching of fundamental legal concepts (specified above according to the Dublin descriptors). Learning outcomes will be assessed by means of intermediate

	written open-ended tests and/or intermediate oral tests (which will contribute to the final assessment only in the event of a favourable outcome) and a final written open-ended examination and/or an oral examination. The assessment is expressed by a mark in thirtieths. The final examination is deemed passed when the mark is greater than or equal to 18.
Assessment criteria	Knowledge and understanding The assessment criteria used aim at verifying the student's effective acquisition of the methodology necessary for the knowledge and understanding of the private law institutes indicated in the programme. Applied knowledge and understanding: The assessment criteria used aim to verify the student's effective acquisition of the methodology necessary for the application of the knowledge and understanding of the private law institutes indicated in the programme through in-depth seminars, case law exercises, individual and group research, discussion groups. Autonomy of judgment The assessment criteria used aim at verifying the student's effective acquisition and development of the ability to critically study the private law institutes through the study of the most significant literature and the most innovative case law on the individual topics. Communication skills The assessment criteria used aim at verifying the effective acquisition by the student of the ability to argue doctrinal and jurisprudential theses, so as to be able to communicate them well in moments of sharing, comparison and discussion - in the classroom or on an e-learning platform - both individually and in groups. Capacities to continue learning The assessment criteria used aim to verify the student's effective acquisition of the methodology necessary for the learning and critical study of the main relevant institutes, the most significant existing literature on the topics under study and the most innovative jurisprudence.
Final exam and grading	The final grade is awarded in thirtieths.

criteria	The examination is deemed passed when the mark is greater than or equal to 18.
Further information	